Funeral checklist

Some things should be settled immediately after a loved one passed away, even before the funeral. Other things can wait, a couple of days, even weeks or months. The general checklist below shows what needs to be done and when, at a glance.

Download the funeral checklist here.

Immediately after passing (before the funeral)

Call the doctor on duty

Contact the funeral home

Contact funeral insurance company

Check the testament / will (if funeral wishlist is included in the will)

Check the donor registration

Arrange death certificate

Contact and inform important person(s)

Go through the funeral wish list

Arrange clothing

Immediately after my passing, the following persons must be informed:

Person 1

Address

Telephone Number

E-mail address

Person 2

Address

E-mail address

Funeral checklist

Just after the funeral

- Contact notary for will
- Inform bank(s)
- Arrange new authorization (accounts)
- Inform employer
- Inform funeral insurance company, SVB
- Apply for survivor's/ orphan pension
- Inform authorities (health insurance company, SVB, tax authorities, utility companies.)

Within a few months

- Arrange custody (child benefits, study funding)
- Inventory of automatic transfers (creditcards)
- Inventory of bank balances
- Inventory of debts
- Inventory of possessions
- Collect insurance money
- Open the safe deposit box
- Securities and real estate property check
- Distribute estate

My finances

Besides the huge grief, death also has financial consequences. For example, think of the cost of a funeral, or the loss of a portion of income. In addition, all kinds of practical matters must be taken care of, such as the cancellation of current and/or savings accounts and cashing policies. In this chapter you will find out more about your finances.

It is recommended to keep proof of ownership/ debt in one central place.

Insurance

Following the passing away of a loved one, the relative(s) should inform the insurance company. On the following pages you can indicate which insurance policies you have.

Bank

After a loved one passed away, it is recommended to contact the banks to cancel accounts and/or credit cards. The bank will block the account immediately. All power of attorney signed by the deceased will automatically expire. However you can still make payments for the following providing an invoice; funeral expenses, hospital bills, utility bills.

It is safer to NOT write down any PIN numbers or passwords in this booklet. However do provide this information to your loved ones where they can access this information.

My inheritance

Even after you pass away, you remain present with those you love, in what you leave behind. Many people don't talk or think about it while they are still here, and that's understandable. Therefore it is good to write down some of your wishes. So the bereaved know exactly where they stand.

Debts and Assets

Your family inherits your possessions and debts. Who inherits what, is determined by law. If you want to deviate from this, it is recommended that you make a will.

Testament / Will

Yes No

A will is an official document drawn up by a notary. It captures what to do with your estate.

Made by (name notary):

Phone number:

I wish to assign custody of my children to (its is recommended to include this in a will):

Name

Adress

Telephone number

Other important documents to have in one place

- Letter of instructions
- Financial power of attorney
- Personal & medical history
- Durable health care power of attorney
(Allows you to name a person to direct your health care when you cannot do so)
- Authorization to release health care information
- Living will
(You describe what medical care and treatments you do or do not want to receive)
- Do not resuscitate order
(A NTBR form is a specific document that must be signed by the patient, and alerts the medical staff that in the event that your heart stops beating or you stop breathing, your desire is to not be reanimated)

Other important information regarding my inheritance:

Some prepare their farewell in detail, others leave this to their relatives. In any case it is nice to know your basic wishes. Be creative, the purpose of a funeral is to capture the story of a person's life and share it so loved ones know an important life was lived.
